POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN NON-INTEREST FINANCE (PGDNIF) ADMISSION 2021/2022

The University of Lagos Business School (ULBS) was set up to advance the culture of excellence in business education by the University of Lagos. The university's strategic location and capabilities provide a unique environment that is conducive for executive education and learning. The Postgraduate Diploma in Non-Interest (Islamic) (PGDNIF) programme is designed to equip individuals with the knowledge and skills required not only to be effective managers but also to become transformational Islamic finance leaders in our dynamic and competitive business world.

The specific objectives of the PGDNIF programme include:

- a) To bridge the huge manpower deficit currently experienced in the ethical financial market;
- b) To provide opportunity for individuals with relevant working experience to acquire knowledge and training for a career in non-interest (Islamic) banking and finance;
- c) To train executives in the banking and finance industry desiring specialization in non-interest (Islamic) banking and finance, in order to assist in expanding the banking and finance industry;
- d) To provide opportunity for graduates in other disciplines to acquire necessary skills in non-interest (Islamic) banking and finance in order to prepare them to enter into the job market in non-interest (Islamic) banking and finance.

Our PGDNIF programme offers a range of exciting courses that are designed to meet the practical needs of today's global finance and are continually evolving to remain relevant. Our inductive learning approach involves interactive teaching and case studies that expose our partners (participants) to the day-to-day real-life challenges in the workplace.

The ULBS hereby invites qualified candidates to apply for the PGDNIF programme.
